

I am very concerned about any proposed change to Media Ownership Rules that will allow further consolidation of the media, especially in large cities. I feel it is very important to limit ownership to one station in each city to create diversity of opinion and revenue. I urge you most strongly to not change the current regulation. Doing so will only make the commission appear to be a pawn of large, monied interests, and indifferent to the nation's public. Thank you. Stirling Lathrop